

1. Create a malware and access it on the windows server machine and check the event logs if you are able to fetch its presence.
2. Capture this malware access traffic on the terminal using appropriate command.
3. List last 5 security logs on domain controller machine.
4. Use Member machine and add a 10GB HDD and verify if you are able to use it.
5. Create a PowerShell script to list the following:
 - a. IP Address:
 - b. Hostname:
 - c. Current date and time
6. Use proper links to list the domain information of "rpsconsulting.in" including their SSL certificate information.